1. Entry fee includes pen and feed.
2. Entry fee is nonrefundable, unless due to volume of animals it has been asked that the entry be removed or a class with less than three entries has been cancelled.
3. All current NBA Life, Active, and Junior members are eligible to consign animals in the GTSS Live and Market classes.
4. Each consignor may have two entries per live or market class, including the Ranch Ready pen of 5 Yearling Heifers, with the exception of live calf classes, which will allow each consignor three entries per class. The pen of 5 heifer calves class is limited to one entry per consignor. There is a class limit of 20 yearling bulls and 14 two-year old bulls in which one can consign two animals per class, but the 2nd animal will be on a waiting list until the consignment deadline, and then added to the class until full on a first come first serve basis.
5. All entry forms, rules and other information are available on the NBA website at bisoncentral.com/gold-trophy-show-and-sale/

A) The consignor assumes all responsibilities in regard to the accompanying terms and conditions of this show and sale. The NBA acts only as an agent and will assume no responsibility in the event of injury or death to any animal or for any discrepancy between the buyer and the consignor. Consignor agrees to indemnify and hold the National Bison Association and its officers, members, directors, employees or agents harmless from and against any lawsuits, claims, action or causes of action, arising out of, or in connection with, any errors or omissions of Consignor, its agents, representatives or employees, with respect to Consignor’s duties and responsibilities set forth in this Agreement. This obligation by Consignor includes, but is not limited to, the cost of defense, payment of any judgments and payment of any expenses and for attorneys’ fees and other costs, which may be incurred.

B) In accordance with NWSS regulations a sifting committee may be appointed to view the animals entered and any animal deemed to be without merit as would entitle them to exhibit, the GTSS Operations Committee Chairman may require them to be removed from NWSS grounds. Judges reserve the right to disqualify any animal from the show or sale if in their opinion there is reason. The reasons include, but are not limited, to the following: animal appears to be diseased, injured, or in poor condition. If on arrival or during its stay in the yards an animal appears to be unhealthy, either the GTSS Operations Committee Chairman reserves the right to have that animal examined by a licensed Colorado Veterinarian. If an animal is determined to be unhealthy by the Veterinarian, that animal shall be removed from the Show & Sale. Costs of examination shall be borne by the NBA if the animal is deemed healthy or born by the consignor if the animal is deemed unhealthy.

I (we) affirm the nonuse of growth stimulants or steroids. I (we) agree to testing of consigned animals during the Gold Trophy Show & Sale period. I (we) agree that a violation of this rule could (subject to action by the NBA Board) lead to permanent banishment from both the GTSS and the NBA. I (we) affirm that our animal(s) have not been treated for any health or medical condition in the previous 30 days other than required vaccinations and worming treatments, or will provide a documented description of any treatment with the health certificate within the 30 day period. By consigning animals in the Market Class, consignors confirm that consigned animals have never been administered antibiotics or growth hormones, to their knowledge, in the animal’s lifetime.

Furthermore, I (we) have read and understand all accompanying rules and regulations of the National Bison Association and/or the Gold Trophy Show & Sale. I (we) certify the above information is true to the best of my knowledge and entries comply with all stated rules and regulations
